Concordia University
The Montreal Institute for Genocide and Human Rights Studies (MIGS)
An Institute of the Faculty of Arts & Science
A MIGS Workshop Seminar

Carol McQueen

Post-Doctoral Fellow, Research Group in International Security, Departments of Political Science, McGill University and University of Montreal

France and Operation Turquoise Reconsidered: Accomplice to the Rwanda Genocide or Defender of Le Devoir d'Ingérence?

Friday/16 November /11:00 a.m.

Room LB-608
The George Rudé Seminar Room,
1400 de Maisonneuve Blvd.

CAROL McQUEEN is currently a Post-doctoral fellow in International Security for the Research Group in International Security, which is a research programme co-funded by McGill University and Universite de Montreal. Carol is also teaching a course on International Organization for the Political Science Department at McGill University. She is in the final stages of submitting her Oxford University doctoral thesis in International Relations, entitled Safety Zones in the 1990s: Iraq, Bosnia and Rwanda. A Rhodes Scholar, Carol is also a graduate of Concordia University where she attended the Liberal Arts College and completed honours in history. Carol's main areas of interest are humanitarian intervention, human rights, global security and international organization.

A Word version of Carol McQueen's paper, which will serve as the basis for the Workshop, is available for printing or downloading under "Related Files" at the bottom of the following Homepage: http://artsandscience.concordia.ca/hist359/